Italy Announces She Will Enter War As German Ally At Midnight Tonight

The FARMERS CORNER

Executive Secretary
Agricultural Council of California

California; crisis faces the nation. With the rest of the world rocking on its foundations, what can our country do to keep on an even keel and avert disaster? More particularly, what can the farmer do? What must he do, if he expects to stay in business; if he wants to be running his own farm — instead of working in a regimented society—ten years hence? These vital questions are discussed by Ralph H. Taylor, farm leader and veteran student in government, in a series of four challenging articles for this newspaper, of which this is the first.

In New York harbor the Statue of Liberty still holds aloft its torch of freedom—lighting the port of entry to a nation where a man's religion, his political opinions and his choice of an occupation are his own private business, and not to be tampered with.

There is nothing news-worthy in that statement, you may remark; the Statue of Liberty has been there ever since we can remember. This is the United States of America!

But the subject can't be dismissed that easily. Finland was a democracy—a splendid, progressive democracy—just a few months ago. Denmark has a peaceful, inoffensive nation, troubling no one and untroubled by others, for many generations. In Holland, when disaster came, the fields were laden with the beauty of tulip-time, just as they had been in years before. And Belgium, ravished in the World War of 20 years ago, had done nothing to invite a new attack on her liberties, but Belgium, today, is the puppet state of Nazi Germany; her farmers working to feed those who despoiled them.

True, Hitler's legions—and, in the case of Finland, Stalin's communist comrades—blew out the torch of liberty in those countries. And there is at least no immediate likelihood, so far as we know, that either Hitler or Stalin is planning a frontal attack on America. Equally true, the United States is at last aroused and is preparing her national defense, so that if and when the totalitarian powers launch a blitzkrieg against us, we shall be able to match planes with planes, and tanks with tanks. But the war-stricken countries of Europe had been "softened up," long before they were invaded, by the treachery and poisonous propaganda; by an easy tolerance of "isms" and vicious terms, which weakened their foundations—and made them an easy prey to the invader.

The United States has been "softened up," too; California has been "softened up," our whole economic and social system has been under constant attack for more than a decade. And it is time that we stopped deluding ourselves, admitted the worst, and made preparations to see that it doesn't happen again—for this country, not yet through its crisis of desperation, is now entering on a new crisis; a period of national emergency, in which billions will be spent for defense, and in which other billions may be wasted by power-drunk, bureaucratic officials, unless the American Placerville's baseballers dropped another heart-breaking ball game to Folsom, 7 to 6, Sunday under a scorching sun.

This was the third straight one-run defeat the Barts have suffered in as many Sundays. A week ago Wolf & Royer nosed them out 8 to 7; the week before Grass Valley edged them out, 10 to 9.

Sunday's game was a pitcher's battle between Lefty Jackson and Lippert. It was almost even—Stephens; both walked three and struck (Continued on Page 4)

Skiers Launch New Year

Enthusiastic Social Event At Strawberry
Resort On Saturday

Placerville Ski Club opened a new year of activity Saturday night at Strawberry Resort with a social occasion marked by the annual club dinner at which business was taboo.

One hundred fifty-seven members and friends of the club gathered for the occasion. The officers for the past year were introduced and recently installed officers for the new year were called upon by the master of ceremonies at the dinner, Chamber of Commerce Secretary Wallace M. Ripley.

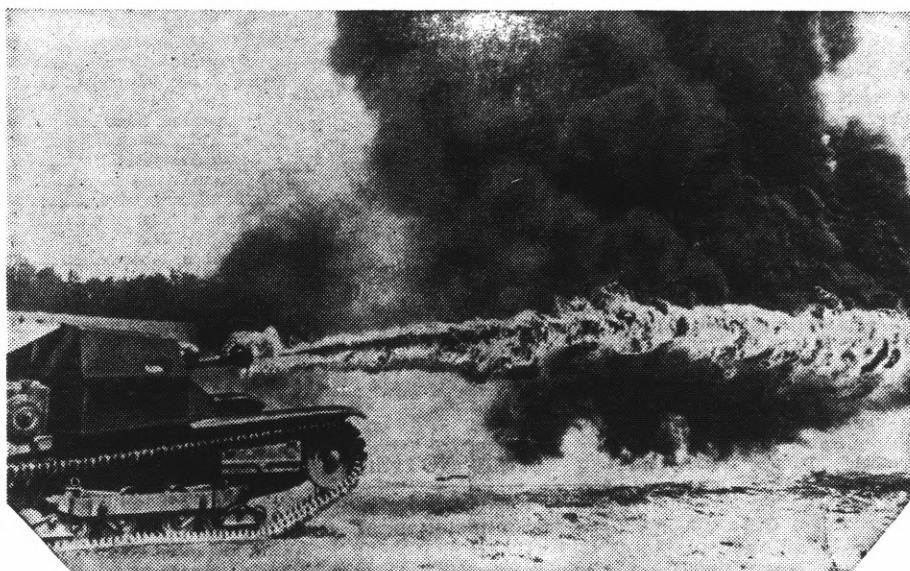

But the skiers were in no mood for talks and business was suspended.

Officers for the new year are Reuel Whigham, president; Swift Berry, vice-president; Howard Lewison, secretary; Don Goodrich, treasurer; and Arnold Weber, delegate to the state association.

Following dinner, the dining room was cleared of tables and chairs and dancing was the order of the evening to music provided by "Red" Owens.

There were several prominent winter sports performers in attendance, among them Halvor Mikkelsen, of Auburn, and his brother, Strand Mikkelsen, who is well-known in professional circles in the east and New England.

Nazis' Newest Blitzkrieg Horror

According to Paris reports, the Germans invading France now are using flame-throwing tanks of the type shown here. Reports say that German tanks fire entire villages by turning their flame-spitting nozzles on every third house.

SHAKESPEARE CHORAL HAS PICNIC SUNDAY AT VOLZ RESIDENCE

The Choral Section of the Placerville Shakespeare Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Volz for their annual picnic, Sunday, June 9. This year the husbands were invited and the supper included weiners and hamburgers cooked on the barbecue in a charming setting of their Fruit Ridge home. Salads, relishes, cakes and raspberry ice and coffee completed the menu.

After supper they assembled on the Volz lawn and sang songs and visited for two hours, adding one more enjoyable event to those gone before when other members have opened their homes and gardens for the social benefit of the club. The evening will be long remembered by those present, who accepted the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Volz, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Gross, and Dr. S. B. Shepard and Miss Lorraine Westrup and Wilfred Olmstead. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilson of San Francisco, Mrs. Justus Brand of Lodi, and the Choral; Emerie Rudland, Messrs. and Desdames E. R. Brander, R. E. Carpenter, Sr., R. A. Sinclair, John Tinney, Loren Forni, J. H. Wilson, Euell Gray, F. H. Morey, Ellsworth Coen, D. W. Le Bourveau, P. L. McHale, R. H. Weidman, Drs. Dan and Jean Babcock and daughter, Barbara, Patricia Crosland, Loren Atwood, Mrs. Zella Luse, Mrs. Marietta Amstalden, Mrs. Grace Hosking, Mrs. Kate Hopkins, all of Placerville, and Carl Sudderth of Klamath Falls. The latter is a brother of Mrs. Coen.

MISS MARILYN RUPLEY TO "LOSE HER HEAD" IN SHOW TONIGHT

Daily you read about ladies losing their heads and making serious mistakes. It will be a little different with Miss Marilyn Rupley, who, according to Twenty-Thirteens, will actually lose her head with Pierce, famous magician officiating tonight at the Shakespeare Clubhouse. People have often wondered why Pierce doesn't have one of his own assistants help him with this unusual act.

It all happened in Boston, Mass., during Pierce's eastern tour last year. The lady who usually assists in this major illusion became suddenly ill just before this particular act was to have been presented. Pierce was at a loss for an assistant since the other assistants of his show helped in other parts of this act.

After a little persuasion, he was successful in securing a lady from the audience who completed the turn. The idea of using a local person was truly a show stopper and has remained with the Pierce show ever since.

C. C. Herbert, forest road superintendent, was at Lake Valley on Monday.

High School Expense Per Pupil Drops As Numbers Increase

428 In Average Daily Attendance Cost $164
Each In 1937-'38 While 505 In 1938-'39
Cost $150 Per Pupil, Survey Shows

LOS ANGELES—The El Dorado County high school district spent an average of $150.23 for current expenditures only during 1938-'39 for each of the 505 high school pupils in average daily attendance in the district, according to a study of expenditures of the larger high school districts of California, just made public by California Taxpayers' association. Of the $150.23 current expenditure per pupil, $90.03 went for teacher salaries and $60.20 for other current expenditures, the association found.

The study showed that the average current expenditure per pupil in 1938-'39 for districts of similar size and teaching the same grades was $152.53. Mid-point expenditure for teacher salaries by this same group of districts was $93.10, while for other current purposes it was $58.87. This means that half of the districts in this group spent more than these amounts for each of these items and half of them spent less.

In 1937-'38, the association found, the El Dorado County high school district spent an average of $164.77 for current expenditures of each of the 428 pupils in average daily attendance in the district. Of this, $92.47 went for teacher salaries and $72.30 for other current expenditures. The data are based on pre-audit figures made available by the State Department of Education and do not include expenditures for capital outlays or debt payment, the association pointed out.

County Assessor E. L. Scott, who has been off duty for about two weeks owing to injury, returned to his work Saturday.

Jack Leak, charged with disturbing the peace, was sentenced to five days in jail Monday morning in city court.

In lieu of a fine set at $25, Joan Crowley went to jail for twelve and one-half days Monday morning when found guilty in city court on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Charles Scott was given a ninety-day suspended sentence in city court Monday morning when found guilty of being drunk and disorderly.

Bert Roussin, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $20 with the alternative of ten days in jail when found guilty on Monday morning in city court.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Meyers and Mr. and Mrs. Don Goodrich, Jr., were at the Goodrich summer home at Al Tahoe for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burris left during the weekend on a two-week vacation trip, reportedly to the Pacific Northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barker and Robert Barker were at San Francisco and Treasure Island for the weekend.

Lyman Bender and son, Joe, were in town from Pleasant Valley Monday morning.

G. I. Akin was down from Fruit Ridge Monday, taking in the sights.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Dellis, Joanne Veerkamp, Janis Benson and Delbert Wilkinson devoted Sunday to a round trip to Treasure Island.

Patricia Darlington and daughter, Patricia, were Sunday visitors at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peterson were here Sunday from Oakland visiting Mr. and Mrs. Glen D. Stevens.

The old store building at Phillips Station has been razed to make way for the new highway realignment and the resort headquarters are now established in what for years has been known as "the long house," on the north side of the highway.

Mrs. Edwin Smith left Sunday morning for Quincy, where Lyle will be employed for the summer. Mrs. Smith will stop at Truckee enroute home to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Oliver.

SCHOOL BALLOT RETURNS SLOW

Incumbent High School
Trustee Reported To Have Been Re-Elected

Swift Berry and Andrew Marchini, members of the governing board of the county high school, are believed to have been re-elected in the annual school trustee election, held on Friday.

The election was conducted in the several grammar school district schoolhouses of the county and Monday morning a check of the complete returns was not available at the office of the county school superintendent.

K. W. McCoy, superintendent, said however that on the basis of reports from several districts, it appeared certain that Mr. Berry and Mr. Marchini had been re-elected.

In Placerville school district, Mr. Berry polled 117 votes and Mr. Marchini 110, while 29 votes were cast for Lloyd L. Vye in the high school race.

In the grammar school election in Placerville, Mrs. Clara Rupley, incumbent, was re-elected without opposition although some write-in votes were reported.

WARREN BENSON GORED BY JERSEY BULL ON FRIDAY EVENING

Warren Benson, of Summit section, was removed to Placerville Sanatorium Friday evening for the treatment of wounds received when he was gored by a Jersey bull as he was feeding the animal at his ranch.

Doctors said Monday morning that Benson is in excellent spirits and his condition is satisfactory. It is expected he will remain a patient at the hospital for ten days or two weeks.

Attending physicians reported that Mr. Benson was feeding the bull, which he had acquired somewhat recently. Previously he had had a Hereford bull which over a period of years had proved docile and presumably Mr. Benson was caught unawares by the Jersey bull's attack.

He was severely lacerated in the right groin by the bull's horns.

ACTION EXPECTED

LONDON, (UP)—Italy's entry into the war was received calmly in London today because the British had long expected and prepared for it.

By UNITED PRESS

A German army of 1,500,000 men, paced by eight hard driving Panzer divisions, smashed forward today on a 210 mile front across France and pushed a spearhead to within 35 miles of Paris.

Everywhere the French fought back with utmost tenacity. The British sent in fresh troops—how many was not stated—and the French high command reported simply:

"From the sea to the Argonne the battle continues more and more violently."

The Germans were advancing. In the west they were across the Seine at two points; an armored column of several hundred tanks had driven to Gisors, 35 miles to the northwest of Paris; in the center they were at Beauvais; in the east they were across the Aisne and driving strongly for the valley of the Marne in the region of Reims.

No official announcement was made but it was indicated that many departments of the French government were evacuating Paris.

NARVIK TAKEN

BERLIN, (UP)—The high command today announced the recapture of the north Norwegian port of Narvik and said that German armies advancing on a 210 mile front into France had shattered all counter-attacks and at some points had turned operations "into a pursuit" of the enemy.

CHAPTER XXXIII
CASTIAN called out hoarsely from the bed: "Who's there?"
"It's Kirby—could you come to my room for a minute?" Kirby said softly.
"Oh . . ." Castian sighed in the darkness. "I thought for a minute."
He climbed out of bed, threw on a robe, and followed Kirby to his room.
"I only want to ask you a question or two, Castian," said Kirby when they were safely shut in.
"Yes?"
"Did Emery leave a will?"
"Yes," said Castian. "He made it last year."
"Do you remember the details?" asked Kirby.
"Yes, I do but—" Castian hesitated.
"I know," said Kirby. "It's supposed to be confidential. But you must help me, Castian. It's important that I know his will. It may save someone's life."
"I SEE," Castian was silent a moment. All right. Anything in particular you want to know?"
"Who gets the bulk?"
"Audrey."
"Trust fund?"
"Yes," said Castian.
"Any other bequests?"
"Yes. Ten thousand apiece for Straeter and myself. Five hundred for each of the servants. A large slice to the Harding Hospital in New York. Your Municipal Museum comes in for a sizable sum."
"Who," Kirby asked, "inherits Skeleton Island?"
"Audrey," said Castian.
"Thanks," said Kirby. "I'm afraid, however, that things are just as muddled as before. Sorry to have dragged you out of bed. Incidentally, I'd advise you to lock your door when you go back."
"I will, but—good lord! You don't think any one would want to kill me!"
"You thought so yourself for a second when I poked my head in just now," Kirby said drily.
CASTIAN started to leave, then suddenly turned back. "I just remembered something," he said.
"Let's have it."
"Audrey came to me day before yesterday—on Friday afternoon."

THE SPIRIT OF

by JOHN CLINTON

Up in Scappoose (that's not something Indians carry on their backs, it's a town in Oregon), there's one of the sweetest couples you ever met—Mr. and Mrs. J. Knusel, by name.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Knusel took a 12-thousand mile automobile trip through Switzerland, France, Germany and Italy. They had a grand time, saw a lot of country and paid as high as $1 per gallon for gasoline.

Then the war scare started, and the Knusels started for home in the Italian Liner Rex along with 1668 other folks. The Rex was intended to accommodate 7001 Well, anyway, now they're back home and mighty glad of it.

But what particularly intrigued me about this yarn is this. They started out with a brand new Dodge. And to be sure that the Dodge got only the best lubrication, you know what they did?

Yep, that's right—took along enough Triton Motor Oil for the whole blooming trip!

I think that's the finest testimonial I've heard for a long time.

You see Triton forms so very little carbon itself that it allows your motor to burn up old carbon left by other oils, and blow it out the exhaust. This is usually accomplished within two to three thousand miles. Ping changes to Purr, and everybody's happy. Naturally, if you start out, as Mr. Knusel did, with Triton—you never do have any carbon worries. Try Triton next time. You can both feel and hear the difference.

Maritime Academy Tests Set For June 29th

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction announces that the next competitive examination for the appointment of Cadets to the California Maritime Academy will be held on Saturday, June 29th in Sacramento, San Francisco and Los Angeles, at the Chamber of Commerce Buildings. Candidates for examination may send for further information and application blank to the California Maritime Academy, 513 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco. The examinations are open to high school graduates between the ages of 17 and 25. Tuition is free (except for out of state Cadets) but there is an annual cost of about $300 per year for board, lodging, uniforms, books and all incidentals. The three years' course, including three foreign cruises, leads to a Bachelor of Science degree, a commission as an officer in the U. S. Naval Reserve and to a license in the U. S. Merchant Marine. While at the Academy, all Cadets are enrolled in the U. S. Naval Reserve with the relative rank of midshipmen.

FHA TRIES OUT 4-ROOM HOME AT ANNAPOLIS

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—An outstanding event in the construction industry is being fostered here with the practical development of modern homes within the financial reach of families with low incomes. The Federal Housing Administration is using this city as a "proving ground" for initiation of its modern, four-room home, erected at a cost of $2,500. It contains a living room, two bedrooms, kitchen and bath and an unfinished attic suitable for two more rooms or a recreation room.

Of necessity the homes are not elaborate but are comfortably designed with simplicity as their keynote. All rooms are cross-ventilated and a dining nook in the large kitchen serves as the dining room. Some of the homes are being erected under title II of the National Housing Act at an owner cost of $15 a month over a 25 year period. Others are choosing title I, paying $21 a month for 15 years.

H. S. ENROLLMENT SHOULD REACH PEAK NEXT YEAR; DECLINE IS FORECAST

LOS ANGELES—High school enrollments in California's public schools will reach their peak next year and will start a long downward trend in 1941-42, continuing at least until 1948-49, declared California Taxpayers' association, studying school enrollments in the state since 1927-28. The association stated that the 1940-41 enrollment in the high schools probably will not be exceeded until 1952-52, despite the current uptrend in population in the state.

Average daily attendance in the El Dorado County high school district, according to reports of the state department of education, was 505 in 1938-39, compared with 474 in 1935-36, the association found. This increase is a part of the overall state increase which the association forecasts will reach its peak in 1941-42 and start downward the year following.

Pardon Is Granted In Grand Theft Case

SACRAMENTO — Governor Culbert L. Olson has granted a pardon to J. J. Wiley, convicted of grand theft in Modoc county in 1935. Wiley served thirteen months in San Quentin prison, fifteen months on parole and has been free of both prison and parole supervision since November, 1937. The governor's office said various officials of Modoc and El Dorado counties as well as the state advisory pardon board have reported favorably on Wiley's petition for restoration of his citizenship.

people refuse to be hoodwinked. Every farmer, who has been amazed at the gradual encroachment of bureaucratic government on his business—who has been irked by the constantly mounting restrictions of government bureaus and departments—needs to pause now, and take account of stock. Strong nations, like the United States, are not overthrown in a day, nor a month, nor a year; they are slowly gutted and emasculated. A bit of liberty is clipped off here for a promise of greater security there; a new tax is levied on top of other taxes, usually in the name of an emergency; then another tax, and another—and finally, perhaps, the farmer finds himself regimented, not by some foreign dictator, but by his constant caller, the tax collector.

There is no disposition on the part of this writer to decry or oppose the war taxes, or preparedness taxes, which are well on their way to enactment. This country must take out insurance against Europe's firebrands — adequate insurance. That, undoubtedly, means sacrifice.

But the economic depression, which started in 1929, and which still endures, has been used as an excuse for the most unbridled, unwarranted era of governmental extravagance in America's history. Because farmers and business men, home owners and workers, were stirred by the plight of their less fortunate countrymen, and were willing to give until it hurt, conscienceless politicians played politics with human misery and spent money like drunken sailors—at a ration of ten cents for the needy, and 90 cents for the greedy. And the present threat of war—the present admitted need for national preparedness—may again be used as an excuse for a new period of squandering and governmental usurpation of the rights and privileges of the individual, unless the people who still believe in liberty think enough of it to crack down on every bureaucrat who seeks to abridge it. That is the reason for this series of articles, and in succeeding columns we hope to point out the dangers on the horizon.

Barts Lose At Folsom

out five. Jackson was nicked for 15 bingles, two homers and two triples; "Scrappy Sam" Hern's stickers belted out 14 hits, one of them a double by Reggie, who hit three for four to lead the losers. Placerville's port-sider also got a home run when Kipp let his stinging grounder go between his legs. Both teams left 11 of their mates stranded on the paths. Stanley Beach, substituting for injured Lou Neil at first, dropped Kipp's high fly with one out in the ninth, for Placerville's only bobbie.

June 9th Colfax's Lions will be the guests of the Barts at Marcus P. Bennett, Jr., Memorial Park when El Dorado County's entry will make a desperate attempt to crash into the win column. The box score:

ELECTRIC RANGE
and WATER HEATER

Every woman who has cooked electrically likes the simplicity, the ease, the automatic operation of the electric range. They would not go back to old cooking methods for anything in the world. These same women know too that it pays in many ways to install and use an electric water heater as a kitchen companion to their efficient electric range.

When you buy an electric water heater at the time you purchase your electric range monthly payments are only slightly increased. The electric water heater is not an expensive appliance. And when you use both the electric range and water heater you are enabled to buy electricity in the lowest rate block. This low electric rate makes electric water heating inexpensive.

For a cool clean kitchen this summer enjoy the use of the modern kitchen companions—electric range and water heater.
